

Elect a Raccoon Overlord

08/26/2025 2:17 pm EDT

This content has been very graciously shared by Sarah Walker, who will forevermore be known as The Raccoon Overlord Lady.

The 2022 Global Constitution requires the election of a Raccoon Overlord every four years, starting in 2022.

Refer to Article II of the 2022 Global Constitution for the full qualifications a would-be candidate must meet to be eligible to hold this office.

Follow these steps to elect a Raccoon Overlord.

1. Publish the names of all eligible candidates and the current city of residence for each candidate on 30 June of the election year as set forth in the Global Constitution.
  - This information must be published exactly how they will appear on the ballot on Election Day.
  - This information must be published in a press release distributed to all subscribed entities.
  - This information must be read aloud in an audio file distributed to all entities that have subscribed to the Election Oversight Committee's audio file distribution service.
  - Any other medium currently in use at the time of the election should be used to distribute this information.

2. Begin recruiting polling center staff, ballot counters, and other polling center support staff on the first Tuesday of August. Refer to Recruit Polling Center Staff for more information.
3. Publish the locations of polling centers on the last Monday of August of the election year.
4. Hold the first candidate debate on the last Thursday of August of the election year.
  - a. Announce the location on the first Monday of August.
  - b. Confirm with all eligible candidates that they plan to participate by 15 August.

Eligible candidates are not required to participate, and debate organizers are not obligated to state why any eligible candidate is not participating.

- c. Hold a dry technical rehearsal (no candidates present) no later than the last Tuesday of August.

- d. Hold a wet technical rehearsal on the last Wednesday of August.
    - The rehearsal cannot start until all participating candidates are present.
    - All participating candidates must remain at the venue until the technical director announces that all lighting, sound and other technical considerations are set.

5. Hold the second candidate debate on the last Thursday of September.

- a. Announce the location on the first Monday of September.
- b. Confirm with all eligible candidates that they plan to participate by 15 September.

Eligible candidates are not required to participate, and debate organizers are not obligated to state why any eligible candidate is not participating.

- c. Hold a dry technical rehearsal (no candidates present) no later than the last Tuesday of September.
- d. Hold a wet technical rehearsal on the last Wednesday of September.

The rehearsal cannot start until all participating candidates are present, and all participating candidates must remain at the venue until the technical director announces that all lighting, sound and other technical considerations are set.

6. Confirm that every polling location is prepared for Election Day.

- a. By the last Friday of September, confirm that each polling location has at least the minimum number of polling center staff, ballot counters and other polling center support staff based on the criteria established in Article II Section 4 of the 2022 Global Constitution.
  - The Polling Location Staff Oversight Committee at Election Oversight headquarters must receive the training certifications for all scheduled and backup polling center staff, ballot counts and other polling center support staff by the last Friday of September.
  - Although the number of backup persons for each polling location staff position is not set forth in the 2022 Global Constitution, the Election Oversight Commission officially encourages each polling location to have a 1:1 ratio of scheduled and backup workers.
- b. By the last Friday of September, all voting machines at the Election Oversight headquarters must have passed testing and found to be fully functional and then locked by the Election Oversight headquarters technical supervisor.
- c. Ship the voting machines to the polling locations so that they arrive no later than 15 October.
- d. Confirm receipt of the voting machines with each polling location supervisor no later than the last Monday of October.
- e. Ensure that each polling location supervisor has the email address for the Election Oversight Committee IT support staff, EOC\_IT-Support@raccoonglobalgaze.gov, and understands the situations that require support from the Election Oversight Committee IT support staff.

7. Hold the final candidate debate on the last Thursday of October.

- a. Announce the location on the first Monday of October.
- b. Confirm with all eligible candidates that they plan to participate by 15 October.

Eligible candidates are not required to participate, and debate organizers are not obligated to state why any eligible candidate is not participating.

- c. Hold a dry technical rehearsal (no candidates present) no later than the last Tuesday of October.
- d. Hold a wet technical rehearsal on the last Wednesday of October.

The rehearsal cannot start until all participating candidates are present, and all participating candidates must remain at the venue until the technical director announces that all lighting, sound and other technical considerations are set.

- 8. Distribute the codes to unlock the voting machines to each polling location chief an hour before the polling location opens on Election Day.

Do not distribute the unlocking codes to all polling location chiefs across the Raccoon Global Gaze simultaneously.

- 9. Distribute the codes to lock the voting machines at each polling location chief an hour before the polling locations close on Election Day.
- 10. Publish the final vote count and announce the president-elect of the Raccoon Global Gaze only after all ballots from all polling locations across the Raccoon Global Gaze have been processed.
